MILEY CYRUS

Miley's dad, Robby Ray, is kinda cool. Her mom died so he is a single parent and also Hannah's career manager. He's proud of his kids and is always there to give them advice - and sometimes sing them a country song too. Aww!

ROBBY RAY STEWART

Miley's best bud, Lilly, is a down-to-earth Californian sk8er. Her alter ego when she goes out with Hannah is Lola Luftnagle and she always changes the color of her wig. Cool!

LILLY TRUSCOTT

Nicknamed 'Smokin' Oken', Oliver is good pals with Miley and Lilly - and has to suffer much teasing from the pair. He is very protective of his one chest hair!

OLIVER OKEN

Miley's older brother, Jackson, is such a goofball! He is silly, crazy and loves a good laugh. He doesn't have much luck with the ladies but maybe that's because he tries too hard.

JACKSON STEWART

A rockin' pop star, Hannah has tons of fans. By day, she's Miley Stewart, but once she puts on her wig, there's no stopping this cool and talented girl from singing her heart out on stage.

Do you ever feel as if you're walking on stage when you go to school? Well, enjoy it! After all, it's fun to be in the spotlight, especially when you have good friends playing their parts with you!

Have I told you your hair looks great today? It's so lush.

FOUR WAYS TO CONFESS BAD GRADES

Oops, My Bad (Grade, That Is)!

IF YOU GOT A BAD GRADE, START BY PROMISING YOUR PARENTS YOU'LL STUDY HARDER IN THE FUTURE AND WON'T GET A BAD GRADE AGAIN. IF THEY STILL SEEM UPSET, TRY SAYING SOMETHING TO LIGHTEN THE MOOD, LIKE THIS:

1. Did you know that the Sun will explode in five billion years? Doesn't that make grades seem unimportant, somehow?
2. Have I told you lately how much I love you?
3. Or do what Miley did for her biology test – "GET DOWN, STUDY-UDY-UDY!"

STEP 3

EVERYBODY DANCE NOW

LET'S PUT ON A SHOW!

Want to put on a play? Here's a great idea: just for fun, perform an episode of Hannah Montana with your friends! Here's how:

- 1 Ask your friends to come to your house on the weekend.
- 2 Choose your favorite episode.
- 3 Make sure everybody gets to play a part.
- 4 Learn your lines and rehearse with your friends. It will be really fun to learn the lines together!
- 5 Throw a Hannah Montana party and put on the play. And remember to chill – goofing up once in a while is part of the fun!

★ As Miley Stewart's BFF, Lilly Truscott is someone Miley can always count on. And there's an added bonus – as Hannah Montana's friend, she also gets to go backstage at the hottest concerts and attend the coolest show-biz parties! That's pretty close to the life that Emily Osment, who plays Lilly, is living right now. After all, she's on a super-popular TV show and she's made a great new friend – Miley Cyrus (the two girls hang out in real life). Emily sat down with us to answer a few questions about what it's like to star on the hit show, "Hannah Montana".

And I don't remember who it was [I was chasing]! You should send him a thank you card! Moving forward, let's speak about music. Tell us which songs from Hannah Montana always make you want to get up and dance?

There's a ton. I do like "Just Like You." We sing that in the car. All the songs are really good. I listen to them all the time.

Have you always thought about going into show business?

My dad did a lot of theater, and so does my brother [Haley Joel Osment, star of the movie "The Sixth Sense"]. I'd see them rehearsing sometimes when I was little and I would think, "I want to do that."

saying a line. I don't even know I'm doing it.

It sounds like you know all the lines pretty well – not just your own!

Do you have to rehearse a lot to memorize them?

It's not like we're speaking a foreign language to us. We're playing our age. We're playing ourselves, basically. We're not saying things that would be out of the ordinary or hard to memorize. [When I read the scripts], I think, "Yeah, I would totally say that to Miley."

What's the upside and the downside of fame?

There is really no downside, except keeping everything

Meet Emily Osment!

CHAT WITH EMILY

The producers said that you did a great job in your audition for the part of Lilly Truscott. Then the next day, one of the producers went to his son's school for a Little League game and he saw you chasing a boy on the playground! Emily (laughing): It wasn't like that!

Then he stopped you and said, "You auditioned for us yesterday. You did a really good job," and you just said, "Oh thanks. Thanks a lot." Then you went tearing back off after this kid. He says that's when he realized, "That's the girl" and you landed the part!

No pressure was put on me, but I decided to try it, and look where I am now!

Now that you're working on a television show, have you had any experiences similar to Hannah's?

Right now, we're doing this [show] three weeks out of the month, so we're sort of living what Hannah is living. She's this pop star, then she has to live a normal life as Miley Stewart. I think we all do that on our time off.

Do you guys play pranks on each other on the set?

We try. We're not that great.

Any other bloopers?

For some reason I get caught all the time mouthing Miley's words when she's balanced. We have to go to school while filming the show and doing interviews. And we also have to have free time. We are kids. We need time to play and everything. But I think that's basically the only downside. We are living the dream right now. This is what I've wanted to do all my life. I'm finally doing it. It's a happy feeling.

Thanks, Emily! It was fun chatting with you!

PENCIL CASE

1. Open an old pencil case and lay it flat on a piece of cardboard. Draw around it to make a template.
2. Use the template to cut white fabric in the shape of the pencil case.
3. Take the craft page to a copy shop and ask them to transfer the orange image onto the fabric. (Tip: If you're going to make the Hannah Montana journal, check out those directions and make all your copies at one time!)

4. Using textile glue, stick the fabric onto your pencil case.
5. To neaten it up, ask an adult to use a blunt knife to tuck the edges under the trim of the case.
6. String some beads onto a ribbon and thread it through the zip. Awesome!

DESK SET

1. Turn to page 36, where you'll find a whole bunch of stickers.
2. Unpeel each one and stick it wherever you want... on your books, notebook, organizer, whatever!

FOLDER

1. Take the orange picture on the craft page and glue it to a piece of colored cardboard. (Remember to photocopy it first if you want to use it for the pencil case, too!)
2. Score along the lines as shown on the insert, then fold.
3. Thread some beads onto a piece of thin elastic.
4. Make two small holes on the back of the folder, one on the top and one on the bottom.
5. Thread the elastic through the holes from the outside to the inside and tie knots to secure.

This cool bookmark also gives you Hannah Montana's tips for success – in school and on stage! Turn it over for a few reminders about how to make it to the spotlight and how to enjoy getting there. And remember, even if you're not destined to be a pop star, you'll top the charts if you follow Hannah's lead!

Simply cut the shape out, punch a hole in the top and the bottom. Thread some ribbon through and drape it over your book – like in the picture.

BOOKMARK

TIPS, TIPS!

1. Start every morning with some stretching. After all, you have to keep limber to do all those dance moves – or just to run around during a hectic day!

2. Always warm up your vocal chords before you sing so you won't strain your voice. (And always study hard before the big test so you won't strain your brain!)

3. Practice makes perfect – so don't skip rehearsal!

4. Don't wait for your Grammy acceptance speech to thank all the people who have helped you do great things – thank them now!

5. Do your best to show up on time – or, even better, five minutes early.

6. Keep smiling – and remember to have fun!

CHECK it OUT

COUNT HOW MANY A'S, B'S AND C'S YOU SCORED TO FIND OUT YOUR STAR SCORE!

A You're always up for doing something fun with your friends, whether it's performing in the school play or going to a cool concert. However, you don't need to be the center of attention all the time. You're the girl everyone loves to hang with because you're friendly, fun and totally laid-back.

B You know how to balance your crazy side and your serious side. If the spotlight happens to hit you, hey – you can take center stage! But you're just as happy to stay in the background and cheer on your friends.

C Whoa, you do love to perform, girl! If there's a stage, you'll do a monologue; if there's a microphone, you'll sing a song; and if there's a spotlight, you'll grab it! You're friendly, outgoing, and upbeat – in other words, you're a natural-born entertainer.

Acting up!

Stage a drama-rama at your next sleepover and get ready for a standing ovation!

Ask every guest to bring an article of clothing or costume jewelry to put in a costume box. Then get the party started by having everyone dress up. Go wild – the funnier you look, the more fun you'll have!

WRITE YOUR OWN FILM

Sit in a circle and take turns creating your story, with each person adding one sentence at a time. For example, the first person might say, "Two girls are sitting in a diner." The next person might add, "They are ordering milkshakes when a cute guy walks in." Keep adding sentences – the crazier, the better! (And if someone has a tape recorder, remember to turn it on. You may want to transcribe your inspirations and turn them into a real script!)

DRESSING UP

So you've got a lot of auditions coming up. What will you wear to play the following roles? What kind of props will you use? Brainstorm with your friends and write down all your ideas!

- Funky folksinger
- Broadway dancer
- Hollywood star
- Down-home country singer

DRESSING DOWN

But life as an actress doesn't always mean glamorous or cool outfits. In fact, sometimes you'll have to make yourself look pretty bad. Do you have the guts to black out your teeth, wear horrible glasses, or totally mess up your hair? Think about what you'd wear to play these characters.

- Down-and-out pirate
- Mummy
- Island castaway
- Crazy cat lady

party game

A CHANGE OF SCENE!

Watch an episode of Hannah Montana with your friends. Put the sound on mute and make up your own dialogue and sound effects to match what's happening on the screen.

INTERVIEW TIME

Pretend you're an actress being interviewed for an entertainment TV show. Fill in the blanks – and remember to say it all with a sparkling smile!

I loved making this movie because _____.
My co-star was _____.
I enjoyed working with him because _____.
I've learned a lot about acting from actors like _____.
The movie I wish I could have starred in is _____ because _____.

AD-LIB THIS!

Sometimes there's no script, so actors improvise their lines – which means making it up as they go along! Take a shot at performing these scenes off the top of your head.

- Interviewing for a job at the coolest clothes store in the mall. Get a friend to play the tough store manager.
- Telling the cute new boy in your class that you have a crush on him. Ask your friend to play the boy (but be prepared to have her break down in giggles!).
- Arguing with your dad because he won't let you go to a party. Your friend can play your dad – you can even make her wear a fake moustache!
- Packing to go on vacation and discovering that you can't find your favorite sundress. To double the fun, ask your friend to act the part of someone who has lost her favorite flip-flops!

TEAR TROUBLE

Many actors find crying the hardest part of a performance. If you're struggling to sob, think about these "tragedies" and the tears will soon be flowing!

- Your brother recorded over your favorite episode of Hannah Montana.
- You got great tickets to Hannah's concert – but it was over all too soon!
- You're ready to stick your star-struck stickers on your journal... and realize you've run out of them!

GET EMOTIONAL

Every actress has to turn her emotions on and off on demand. Using just facial expressions, try to act:

Happy	Worried
Scared	Relaxed
Sad	Moody
Angry	Confused
Crazy	In love

VOICE CHOICE

Try saying this line using different accents:

Your Line: "You know, I'm an artist... that's what I do."

- A French actress
- A member of the English royal family
- An American movie star diva
- An Italian opera singer

A life on STAGE!

Yesterday I had one of the best concerts of my life!

But best things in life don't last, do they?

I can't believe you did three encores! You know we have a science project due tomorrow!

Sometimes it's really hard to give up a star's life!

So, while Lilly and I were studying at home, I wished upon a falling star...

I wish... I wish there was no secret. I was just Hannah Montana all the time. Sure would make life a whole lot easier.

You won't ever believe it, but this morning I woke up and... had no wig! I was really Hannah!

Look what a fairy tale room!

Cake for breakfast, private teacher,

Yo, yo, yo.

If you wannna be viewin' on

Then I found out that it wasn't all so wonderful...

I've already got friends.
Why don't you go back to the

Since I was

I never knew
Lilly.
I had lost my

I had lost

I don't wish for

I learned

Luckily, it

But it's still

DO YOU KNOW JAKE?

If you're like Miley, you want to know everything about Jake Ryan – including what he secretly likes in a girl! So far, that's still a mystery, but if you've been paying attention, you'll probably ace this quiz!

- (A) THE 70S
- (B) PIRATES

2 He had to leave school to film a movie in:

- (B) BULGARIA
- (C) ROMANIA

3 On Zombie High, Jake plays a:

ANSWER: LESLIE

HANNAH'S TIP

"It's hard to hide it when you have a crush! But don't tell the world – just confide in your best friend so you have someone to talk to about the guy you like. (Of course, if you're really brave, you can tell your crush, too!)"

JAKE QUOTES

I know I kissed you and then left.
And I'm sorry.
But I never stopped thinking about you.

What're you talking about?
O.K. maybe I'm not normal on the outside!
But inside beats the heart of a kid just like you!

For Miley, I thought about what you said, and you're right. I do wish I was a normal person sometimes.
I just don't know how to do that yet. But when I figure it out, I hope I'll be worthy of someone as terrific as you. And don't worry, your secret will always be safe with me.

Use these stage techniques to prepare for big moments in your real life.

Situation:

You have to give an oral book report in English.
You're afraid your mind will go blank when you're standing in front of the class.

Stage technique:

Actors have to memorize many lines when they appear in a play, TV show or movie. How do they do it? They read the script over and over again, underlining key phrases. Then they memorize sections at a time.
Practice in front of the mirror until you can give your report without a single stumble.

Situation:

You've invited some friends over for a Hannah Montana party.
You want everything to look just right!

Stage technique:

Set designers spend time finding the perfect set and choosing the right props for every scene. You can do the same thing. Think of your room as your set. What kind of props would bring a Hannah Montana party to life? Maybe you could put a lifesize poster of Hannah on the door... or buy some inexpensive wigs so that everyone can change their look – just like Hannah and Lilly do!

Situation:

You're still stressing a bit about your Hannah Montana party. Now you're worried about what music to play.

Stage technique:

Create your own sound check by making a list of your favorite Hannah Montana songs. Then create a playlist on your mp3 player or cue up the CDs in your boombox. Once the music's playing, your party will be revved up!

STAGE rsal!

Situation:

You've been invited to go to a concert with friends. You want to look your absolute best!

Stage technique:

Be your own costume designer!
Try on lots of different outfits at home (be creative – mix and match your pants, tops, and skirts until you find something that feels right!).
Now, check yourself out in the mirror. Once you've decided on the look you want, you're ready to have fun!

Situation:

Sometimes on stage (as in real life), you have to do something that's unexpected – like kissing a frog! (The director has assured you that this will make the scene very funny, but you're still nervous...) So what do you do when life throws you for a loop?

Stage technique:

Do what great actors do – improvise! That means responding to whatever's happening and doing the best you can. As long as you're straightforward and honest, things will turn out fine.
